Depart on an overnight flight to Brazil and to Rio de Janeiro, A Cidade Maravilhosa — the Marvelous City.

Day 1 Rio de Janeiro

Arrive in Rio and get settled into your hotel. This afternoon you will ascend the summit of Sugarloaf Mountain via a breathtaking cable car ride. Afterwards,

Bandoneón player, Buenos Aires

you will visit and walk through Rio's beautiful Botanical Gardens. (B)

Day 2 Rio de Janeiro

Today you will take the cog railway to the peak of Corcovado Mountain, where the statue of Christ the Redeemer (voted one of the Seven Wonders of the World) overlooks the city from a height of 2,300 feet. Enjoy the panoramic view of Rio including its famous beaches and Guanabara Bay. Your descent will bring you through the lush Tijuca Forest, the world's largest urban forest. (B)

Day 3 Rio de Janeiro

Enjoy your day at leisure. This evening, a uniquely Brazilian experience – dinner at a local Churrascaria (barbecue) restaurant, followed by a passionate samba show at Plataforma 1. (B, D)

Day 4 Rio de Janeiro-Iguassu Falls

Today fly out of Rio bound for Iguassu Falls, one of the world's most beautiful natural spectacles. Check into your room at the Hotel das Cataratas, overlooking the falls inside the Brazilian National Park. This afternoon, take the independent walking tour of the Brazilian side of the falls. The path begins in front of your hotel. (B)

Day 5 Iguassu Falls-Buenos Aires

The Argentine side of the falls offers a different perspective. After checking out of your hotel, pass over the Iguassu River into Argentina. Walk through the Argentine National Park to the catwalk overlooking the Devil's Throat, the most breathtaking view of the falls where the thundering water plunges 235 feet to the river below. This afternoon, your flight to Buenos Aires departs from the nearby Argentine-side airport. Check into your Buenos Aires hotel and enjoy your evening at leisure. (B)

Day 6 Buenos Aires

Today you will embark on a journey through the city's various neighborhoods and sights, including the colorful La Boca district, Plaza del Mayo, La Casa Rosada, Recoleta Cemetery, the burial site of Eva Peron, and many others. This evening you may want to enjoy one of the many restaurants located in the Puerto Madero area on the riverfront. (B)

Copacabana Beach

Sugarloaf

Ipanema Beach

Day 7 Buenos Aires

Optional sightseeing for today includes a visit to the Colon Opera House, a train excursion to Tigre with river tour, or a day trip to the Pampas for barbecue lunch and Fiesta Gaucha. Included this evening is your dinner and Tango Show at the authentic El Querandi Restaurant, featuring live orchestra and sensual, lively dancers performing the Tango, just for you. (B, D)

Day 8 Buenos Aires – U.S.

Relax this morning and enjoy your day at leisure. Your homebound overnight flight departs late-afternoon. (B)

(B)

Day 6 Iguassu Falls – Manaus

Head to the airport for your early flight to the city of Manaus, in the heart of the Amazon Jungle. Upon arrival, settle into your comfortable room at the 5-star Tropical Hotel Manaus, on the Rio Negro just before its confluence with the Amazon. This afternoon on your city tour, visit the rubber-boom era Opera House, Indian Museum, floating docks, and busy local market. (B)

Day 7 Manaus

This morning from your hotel's docks, you'll cruise on an Amazon riverboat to

Brasília

the "meeting of the waters," where the dark waters of the Rio Negro meet the muddy waters of the Rio Solimões, forming the Amazon River. After a delicious lunch featuring fresh local cuisine, you'll have a closer look at the Amazon's fauna and flora, exploring tiny branches of the river via canoe, returning to your hotel by riverboat later in the afternoon. (B, L)

Day 8 Manaus – Brasília

Today you will fly to Brasília, one of the world's most modern capital cities, and check into your room at the luxurious Blue Tree Park, adjacent to the President's residence, the Palácio da Alvorada. (B)

Pelourinho, Salvador da Bahia

Amazon

Day 9 Brasília – Salvador da Bahia

Embark on an architecturally exciting city tour of Brasília. Points of interest include the legislative buildings (convex and concave domes), the Presidential Palace, the Supreme Court and the Ministries (18 identical buildings). Later this afternoon board your flight to Brazil's first capital city Salvador da Bahia. Check into your comfortable hotel room and enjoy your private view of the Atlantic Ocean, at the Pestana Bahia Hotel. (B)

Day 10 Salvador da Bahia

Today you will tour the largest and best preserved complex of colonial architecture in the Americas - the famous Pelourinho district. Walk through the narrow, cobbled streets lined with fine colonial houses painted in pastel shades, and visit several churches including the spectacularly ornate Church of São

Ipanema Beach

Francisco, the finest example of of Baroque churches in Brazil. (B)

Day 11 Salvador da Bahia

Enjoy today at your leisure. This evening you'll visit the 18th century oceanside colonial mansion Solar do Unhão, where in the former slaves quarters, you'll dine on Bahian cuisine, and then see a fabulous show of Capoeira, a deadly acrobatic martial art originating from the Bantus of Angola. (B, D)

Day 12 Salvador – U.S.

Relax this morning, and reflect on your long journey nearing its completion. Your homebound overnight flight departs late-afternoon. (B)

Tour Conditions & Responsibilities

How to make your reservation

To make your reservation, see your travel agent or, for more information, visit our website at www.discoverbraziltours.com.

Reservations & Payment

Reservations will be confirmed upon receipt of a $150 per person deposit. Full payment is due at least 60 days prior to departure except for Carnival or Reveillon, where full, non-refundable payment may be required upon confirmation. All major credit cards and checks are accepted.

Visas

Passengers are responsible for acquiring valid passports and visas. U.S. Citizens must possess a Brazilian Tourist Visa for travel to Brazil. For Argentina, a valid U.S. passport will suffice. Requirements for citizens of other countries differ. Children of Brazilian Citizens have special passport requirements – ask the Brazilian Consulate for details. Discover Brazil Tours recommends the use of a reliable visa service that will assist you in obtaining the proper visas.

Travel Documents

Documents will be issued and delivered upon receipt of final payment. Documents will include airline tickets, vouchers for hotel and ground services, itineraries, and the Discover Brazil Guidebook covering detailed information on the areas to be visited.

Baggage

One carry-on handbag small enough to fit in overhead compartment, and two checked pieces of luggage are allowed. No single piece of luggage may weigh over 50 pounds, nor exceed 106 inches in combined length, width and height. No one dimension may exceed 62 inches.

Cancellation

Tour Deposit of $150 per person is non-refundable. After issuance of documents, any airline or hotel cancellation fees become non-refundable. Carnival, Reveillon and special events hotel packages are non-refundable, due to the hotel's non-refundable pre-payment requirements. Otherwise, hotels will charge one room night if cancelled less than 72 hours prior to check-in. Unused portions of tour are not refundable. Airfares are subject to different rules and cancellation fees; some may be non-refundable. To protect against cancellation charges, we strongly recommend purchasing Travel Insurance.

Travel Insurance

Discover Brazil Tours, Inc. acts as passenger's agent to travel providers (airlines, hotels, ground services). We recommend the purchase of travel insurance to cover your travel arrangements. Travel Guard insurance covers trip cancellation or interruption, illness, injury, emergency assistance and baggage. Contact your sales representative for more information.

Health Requirements

No immunization or health certificates are required for travel to Brazil or Argentina from the U.S. No high altitudes or rural areas are visited by these tours. If entering Brazil from Bolivia, Peru or Ecuador, a yellow-fever certificate may be required. Contact Brazilian Consulate for details. Passengers should consult their physician regarding all health matters.

Tour Prices & Hotel

Prices are quoted in US dollars. Hotel room grades are run-of-the house. Hotel rooms include private bath. Printed tour prices are based on exchange rates, tariffs and taxes at the time of printing. Discover Brazil Tours reserves the right to change pricing to reflect hotel tariffs, taxes and exchange rates applicable at the time of tour confirmation.

Not Included

Airport departure taxes are not included, and are calculated at time of ticket issuance. Also not included are excess baggage charges, meals other than those specified, tips to guides, drivers or bellboys, any item of a purely personal nature, and any other item not specifically mentioned as included.

Holidays

During local or national holidays, certain facilities such as museums and restaurants, sightseeing tours and shopping may be limited or not available. Alternatives will be offered whenever possible.

Air Transportation

Airfares are based on contracted bulk or published fares in economy class service. All fares are subject to change. Certain fares require advance purchase or instant purchase and are subject to a cancellation fee once tickets are issued. Should airline schedule changes result in a necessity to alter the land arrangements, the passenger must pay any additional expense.

Responsibility

The responsibility of Discover Brazil Tours, Inc., of Miami, Florida (hereinafter referred to as DBT), is strictly limited. DBT arranges with airlines, hotels, ground transport companies and other independent firms, as agent, to provide passengers with high quality travel services. While DBT takes great care in selecting suppliers, we do not control them and therefore cannot be responsible for their acts or omissions or those of their employees, agents or representatives. DBT will not be responsible for any act or omission, error, delay, loss, accident or injury to you or those traveling with you, caused by the neglect or default of any company or person engaged in providing services for which tickets or vouchers are issued, including the service of any hotel, restaurant, night club, or train, vessel, carriage, aircraft, motorcoach or any other conveyance. Neither will DBT be responsible for the expense, inconvenience or injury caused by conditions beyond its control including, but not limited to, hotel or airline overbooking, late arrival or departure of conveyance, delays, strikes, defects in vehicles, breakdown in equipment, accidents, sickness, weather conditions, theft, terrorist acts, changes in itinerary or schedules, or passenger's failure to obtain required documentation. The right is reserved to withdraw any or all tours or to vary itineraries and substitute components of tour programs should conditions warrant; also to decline to accept or retain any passenger as a member of the tour. The payment of the required deposit or partial or full payment for a reservation on a tour constitutes consent to all provisions of the conditions and general information contained herein.

How To Book
